Dean Viv. I trust you will excuse me in taking the liberty of troubling you; but as I have It in contemplation to take another collecting trip and being undecid as to the region most advan-Tageous for me to explore, I am well aware you com que me information on that Subject. The Island of Cuba Dam well aware is decidedly sich in floral treasures: but how for it has fee been explored by any Botanical Collector am not competent to say. There I would have every for celity for forwarding my Specimens & Suds to Ongland, which of course is a great advantage: but on the other hand it is avery exprension Country to live in, which with me requires consideration From the Tantalizing proof Thouse of the Hosa about the Ration ellountains for the Short time It was there Thome every reason to think that in the country between Jas & Founta Fe a value ble collection might be obtained and I must earfies my inclination lends towards that country. Vanderstood from you that you had received a collec Thon of Efficiences from the Sount or The Region: but Dr. copyright reserved GARDEN
